Resolution

Whereas, Mary Flowers a much loved member of Legal Aid of North Carolina (LANC) Board and dedicated chairperson of The Client Council has dedicated substantial time and effort for more than 20 years.

Whereas, Mary Flowers has held several offices including Treasurer of Legal Aid of North Carolina and Chair of the Client Affairs Committee. She was also a community leader and worked with youth groups.

Whereas, Mary Flowers through her wisdom, strength, leadership, and dedication to equality and justice, has contributed to making sure that the delivery of legal services was satisfying to not only clients but also whoever needed legal service. She has been a strong voice and a valued Client Representative.

Whereas, Mary Flowers is a respected friend and colleague who has shared her wisdom and knowledge with others while working with LANC. We deeply deplore the loss of our friend and associate.

BE IT RESOLVED, that Legal Aid of North Carolina and the Client Council memorialize in their official minutes this record and tribute to Mary Flowers for her dedication and service to this organization and her important contributions to social justice.
