

PROGRAM SUMMARY

The Low Income Taxpayer Advocacy with the IRS training is a three hour and fifteen minute training (3.00 general CLE credit hours) aimed at practitioners who want information on how to advocate for taxpayers facing controversies with the IRS.

The speakers for this training will describe how to represent a taxpayer in a controversy with the IRS. The speakers will discuss how to begin a tax case and how to resolve the case by working within the IRS regulations.

Substantive material will be provided the day of the training.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This course is designed for attorneys and other tax professionals who want to represent low income taxpayers in controversies with the IRS. Other individuals interested in learning more about this topic are also encouraged to attend.

TOPICS TO BE COVERED

Examinations

Appeals

Tax Litigation

Collections

REGISTRATION

Tuition: FREE

Private Bar participants will be asked to accept two (2) pro bono cases or matters from Legal Aid of North Carolina, Inc.

Contact Person: Ayanda Meachem
Email: ayandam@legalaidnc.org
Phone: (252)758-0113, ext 104
Fax: (252)758-1843

NAME

FIRM NAME

ADDRESS

TELEPHONE FAX

EMAIL ADDRESS

LEGAL AID of NORTH CAROLINA

Controversy Issues: The IRS and the Low Income Taxpayer

Date: Thursday, February 25, 2010
Time: 9:00a.m.-12:15p.m.
Location: NC Advocates for Justice
1312 Annapolis Drive
Raleigh, NC 27608

This seminar funded in part by Legal Aid of North Carolina, Inc. and by the Low Income Taxpayer Assistance Program.