Resolution

Whereas, Sarah Davis was a devoted member of Legal Aid of North Carolina Board of Directors and a dedicated member of the Client Council, and contributed considerable time and energy to the Board and the Council.

Whereas, Sarah Davis, as a member of the Local Advisory Committee for the Legal Aid of North Carolina-Raleigh Office, was instrumental in improving the served communities by highlighting and addressing the plight of those communities.

Whereas, Sarah Davis was an active and respected community leader who worked with many organizations, including youth organizations, to address and combat issues negatively affecting our communities. She was an energetic member of her local chapter of the NAACP and Red Cross. Sarah Davis also served tirelessly on the Board of Elections for over forty years, always willing to give of her time and self to better the conditions of others.

Whereas, Sarah Davis, through experiences, leadership skills, and dedication to equality ensured that the delivery of legal services was satisfying to not only clients, but to all who utilized the services.

Whereas, Sarah Davis was a respected friend and colleague, who shared her knowledge with others while working with Legal Aid Client Council. She was a strong voice and a valued Client Representative. We deeply deplore the loss of our friend and associate.

BE IT RESOLVED, that Legal Aid of North Carolina Client Council memorialize in their official minutes this record and tribute to Sarah Davis for her dedication and service to this organization and her contributions to social justice.
