

Legal Aid of North Carolina

is sponsoring a CLE program:

Debt Collection Defense When the Plaintiff is Allegedly a 3rd-Party Purchaser :

Statutory Requirements, Legislative Developments and Recovery of Attorney Fees.

(1.0 credit hour pending approval)

&

How Substance Abuse & Debilitating Mental Illnesses Play a Part in Incidents of Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault :

Awareness & Case Strategy Approaches for Domestic and Criminal Court.

(1.0 credit hour substance abuse/mental illness pending approval)

Thursday, October 29, 2009

at the

Dennis A. Wicker Civic Center

1801 Nash Street, Sanford, NC 27330

9:45 AM - 12:15 PM

Speakers:

Andrea B. Young, JD, Staff Attorney, Financial Protection Law Center

Jennifer Brobst, JD, LLM, Legal Director, Center for Child & Family Health

* This CLE event is offered "free" to attorneys who have taken at least one case pro bono for Legal Aid during the past 12 months OR who agree to take one or two telephone consultations during the next 6 months. If you cannot attend this CLE program but would still like to volunteer, please call Debbie Herndon (see below).

To register or to volunteer, call

Debbie Herndon @ 1-800-672-5834

or download registration form at:
www.legalaidnc.org/Pittsboro

*These Continuing
Legal Education sessions (CLEs) are offered in cooperation with the American Bar
Association's (ABA's)
"Pro Bono Week"
October 25-31, 2009,
and in recognition of
"Domestic Violence Awareness Month."*