

NEED TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY AND PROTECT YOUR FAMILY'S ASSETS?

LEGAL AID OF NORTH CAROLINA & UNC SCHOOL OF LAW OFFER FREE WILL, POWER OF ATTORNEY AND ADVANCE DIRECTIVES SERVICES

WHY: Wills and other estate planning documents are critical tools that will help you preserve your property for future generations and protect your family's wealth.

WHAT: Will Drafting & Advanced Directive Services

- Students from the UNC School of Law will assist you in drafting various estate planning documents including wills, powers of attorney, and health care powers of attorney.
- During your appointment, you will consult with a law student. Then the documents you need will be drafted, signed and executed.
- Students are working with and under the supervision of attorneys from Legal Aid of North Carolina, the UNC Pro Bono Program and the UNC Center for Civil Rights.

WHEN: Monday, March 8, 2010

- Appointment required - call 252-637-9502 or 1-800-672-8213

WHERE: Jones County Department of Social Services
418 NC Hwy 55 W
Trenton, NC 28585

COST: Free!

- This service is provided free-of-charge but participants must meet the eligibility requirements of Legal Aid of North Carolina.

For more information or to schedule an appointment, call

Legal Aid of North Carolina – New Bern Office

252-637-9502 or 1-800-672-8213

www.legalaidnc.org